

Satisfying “A-G” Subjects by Examination

Students may satisfy portions of the “a-g” requirements by earning an appropriate score on the SAT II: Subject Tests, as listed below. Students also may satisfy portions of the “a-g” requirements by earning a score of at least 3 on the appropriate Advanced Placement test or a minimum score of 5 on Higher Level examinations of the International Baccalaureate.

Subject Requirements	SAT II: Subject Test	Required Score
“a”	U.S. History (satisfies one year)	550
	World History (satisfies one year)	540
“b”	Writing or Literature (satisfies first three years)	560
	Writing (satisfies entire requirement)	680
“c”	Mathematics 1C (satisfies entire requirement)	570
	Mathematics 2C (satisfies entire requirement)	480
“d”	Science (each test satisfies one year)
	Biology	540
	Chemistry	530
	Physics	530
“e”	Language Other than English (satisfies entire requirement)
	Chinese with Listening	520
	French/French with Listening	540
	German /German with Listening	510
	Modern Hebrew	470
	Italian	520
	Japanese with Listening	510
	Korean with Listening	500
	Latin	530
	Spanish/Spanish with Listening	520
“g”	Mathematics 2C	520
	Writing/English Composition or Literature	560
	U.S. History	550
	Science (other than taken for “d” Same tests/ scores as listed above under “d”	540
	Language Other than English, third year
	Chinese with Listening	570
	French/French with Listening	590
	German /German with Listening	570
	Modern Hebrew	500
	Italian	570
	Japanese with Listening	570
	Korean with Listening	550

	Latin	580
	Spanish/Spanish with Listening	570
	Language Other than English (other than taken for “e” Same test/scores as listed above under “e”	